

Please do not let this BPL system operate. We don't need a system such as this. All this will do is harm the the HF bands for all types of two way radio service. The operators of such service should be told to put it back in the box.